Utilities Corporation Seeks to Recover for Alleged Over Assessment, Includes Local Property

Compromise

Aldermen Study Plan to Compromise on Amount Sought by Corporation

Claiming that the state tax department had fixed the assessment on their property for special franchise tax purposes at a million dollars too high for the years 1919 to 1923 inclusive, the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation had filed writs of certiorari against the state department. Since then, following conferences between the state department and the Central Hudson, the electric corporation was willing to compromise on a $200,000 reduction in the assessment for the years mentioned.

If the city of Kingston was willing to accept this compromise figure it meant the city would have to refund $10,905.83 to the electric corporation, payment of which could be spread over a five-year period.

That was the picture presented to members of the common council at an informal meeting held Tuesday evening at the city hall preceding the regular monthly meeting of the council. The conference was attended by R. B. Slack of the state tax department; Assistant Attorney General Timothy F. Cohan; R. L. Bernuth, representing Gould & Wilkie, attorneys for the Central Hudson, and Corporation Counsel John M. Cashin.

Adverse Opinion
Mr. Slack said that since the writs had been pending the Court of Appeals had handed down an adverse opinion against the tax department in a similar case, which had led the tax department to confer with the Central Hudson Corporation. This conference had led to the compromise offered, which the state tax department believed a just compromise and the attorney general's office, legal advisors of the state tax department, concurred.

Writs of certiorari had been filed by the electric corporation for the years 1919-25 inclusive, but the two writs for 1924-25 were to be dismissed and the compromise was for the years 1919-23 inclusive. Since the year 1925 no writs had been served by the local corporation on the tax department.

Mr. Slack said that Kingston was not an isolated case where the state department was advocating acceptance of a compromise, but that the state's legal department was busy settling up cases which had been in existence as far back as 1906 in some of the cities in the state.

Corporation Counsel Cashin explained that the conference had been called so that the representative of the state tax department could place the matter before the aldermen and answer any questions that might be raised as it was planned to introduce a resolution at the council session referring the proposition to the finance ways and means committee for study and report.

The corporation counsel said that it was not a matter that needed hasty action, but should be given study by the council before they took action.

Later in the council meeting the proposed resolution, alluded to by the corporation counsel, was introduced and the matter of the compromise referred to the finance committee for study and report.

Seek Zone Change

Following the conference the council met in regular session. A petition of Robert Van Gaasbeck to have the property at 121 Wall street, a former blacksmith shop, placed in the business zone, was read and referred to the laws and rules committee.

Five Re-appointed

Mayor C. J. Heiselman filed the reappointment of Dr. Harold Rakov and Louis G. Bruhn to the health board; Bernard A. Fenney to the education board; and John B. Stanley to the police board.

Annual Audit Ordered

The annual audit of the city's accounts for the sum of $1,800 was approved by the council.

Zoning Change

The laws and rules committee reported it had held a public hearing Monday evening on the petition of Samuel D. Peterman asking that the property at 51-55 Cedar street be placed in the business zone. No opposition had developed to the petition at the hearing and the committee recommended that the change be made.

An ordinance carrying out the committee's recommendation was read and adopted.

Mr. Peterman, who conducts a bakery on upper Broadway, plans to remove his bakery to the new location on Cedar street, now that it has been included in the business zone.

Traffic Lights Remain

The council unanimously sustained the traffic lights remain.

F.D.R. Administration Wins in Test of Popularity—Pepper Calls on Electorate to Join Forces With President

Hill Is Victor

Former Governor Tom Berry Defeats Senator Herbert Hitchcock in South Dakota

By The Associated Press.
Re-nomination of Senator Claude Pepper of Florida gave the Roosevelt administration a victory today in the first 1938 primary test of the President's popular support.

Shortly after he easily defeated four other candidates in the Democratic race, Pepper issued a statement calling on the people of his state to join forces with Mr. Roosevelt in restoring "a genuine and permanent prosperity."

The 37-year-old attorney, first chosen in 1936 to succeed the late Senator Duncan Fletcher, had been endorsed by James Roosevelt, the President's son and secretary.

In second place was Representative J. Mark Wilcox, who has opposed some administration measures and who called Pepper the President's "rubber stamp."

The vote in 333 of 1,376 precincts: Pepper, 152,007; Wilcox, 79,403; former Gov. Dave Sholtz, 31,401. Two other candidates polled scattering votes.

Allen Walker of Winter Haven led Thomas Swanson of Fort Lauderdale in the Republican Senatorial primary.

The Florida Democratic contest was the only one in four state primaries yesterday which had any national aspects.

Senator Hill Wins.
In Alabama, Senator Lister Hill was re-nominated without opposition. Another Senator—70-year-old Herbert Hitchcock, of South Dakota, lost in a three-way contest for the Democratic nomination to former Governor Tom Berry.

Berry had a plurality of more than 22,000 on returns from 1,468 of the state's 1,957 precincts. Representative Fred H. Debraudt ran second and Hitchcock trailed.

J. Chandler Gurney, Republican nominee in 1936, was well ahead in the Republican Senatorial primary, leading Governor Leslie Jensen and the two other candidates.

The South Dakota gubernatorial nominations went to Harlan Bushfield, Republican, and Oscar Fosheim, Democrat.

In the Democratic contest for Alabama's gubernatorial nomination, Frank M. Dixon of Birmingham, advocating retention of the state liquor store system, led four other candidates.

Run-Off Primary.
A run-off primary appeared necessary, however, because he did not poll a majority. Chauncey Sparks of Eufaula and R. J. Goode of Gastonville were fighting for the second place in the run-off.

In the incumbent House members in Alabama, Florida, South Dakota and Indiana who sought re-nomination were leading on the basis of incomplete returns. This group included Representative Virginia Jenckes (D-Ind.), one of five women Representatives.

Indiana voters also chose delegates to June conventions which will select Senatorial nominees.

Speaker Bankhead was unopposed in his Alabama district. In one Alabama contest attracting widespread attention, Representative John Starnes was leading; former Senator Thomas J. Hefflin, who was trying a political comeback.

Treasury Receipts.
Washington, May 4 (AP)—The position of the treasury May 2: Receipts, $254,697,293.69; expenditures, $34,672,794.81; balance, $2,908,803,919.97. Customs receipts for the month, $1,199,264.70; Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $5,122,189,925.87; expenditures, $6,395,146,720.69. (Including $1,751,467,312.47 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $1,272,956,794.82. Gross debt, $37,509,729,094.99, an increase of $792,779.35 above the previous day. Gold assets, $12,868,833,115.15.

Oliver Branch to Son.
Los Angeles, May 4 (AP)—Mrs. Arthur L. Bernstein extended the olive branch to her son, Jackie Coogan, but the one-time child star today showed no disposition to accept it. Coogan has sued his mother and stepfather for an accounting of his screen earnings as a minor, estimating them at $1,000,000. Mrs. Bernstein declared that if she retains control of her son's estate she will make him a "fair settlement."

Turner Recovering.
Chicago, May 4 (AP)—Roscoe Turner, transcontinental speed flier, was recovering in a hospital today from an infected arm which he said resulted from a bite by his pet African lion. Doctors said for a time it was feared the arm might be lost, but added that Turner now was recovering.

Chinese Forces Begin General Drive

Shanghai, May 4 (AP)—A general Chinese offensive all along the South Shantung front was declared by the Chinese command to have smashed through the center of the Japanese lines at Taiherchwang today and to have advanced 12 miles.

Chinese advance guards fought forward five miles in a night battle, adding these gains to the seven miles they rolled back and buckled up the Japanese lines in the first assault yesterday.

The field commanders of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek declared to tide of war was turning in their favor.

His high command, hopefully awaiting bulletins from the front, said they expected an epochal Japanese defeat similar to that which humbled the divisions of Nippon at Taiherchwang a month ago.

The second great Japanese offensive through Shantung province, this time greatly reinforced to wipe out the previous defeat, was definitely checked, they declared.

Japanese army spokesmen were silent.

Chinese sources estimated the weary, outnumbered Japanese army had lost 34,000 men, killed in fighting in recent days about Tancheng and Paochen on the south and east sides of the salient in which Taiherchwang formed the west side.

There was no war, however, of verifying these estimates from neutral sources.

Hitler Goes Around Rome With Duce; Both Refrain From Mentioning Czechs

Albert Tigar Kills Self With Shotgun Tuesday Afternoon

Abel Street Resident, 65, Tells in Farewell Notes That He Is Lonely Since Death of His Wife

Tuesday afternoon Albert Tigar, 65, of 213 Abel street, wrote several farewell notes telling his brother and children that the struggle for life was too hard, that he was lonely since the death of his wife the first of the year. Then Mr. Tigar placed a shotgun against his chest and the discharge killed him.

The body was found shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Henry Grube, of 75 German street, Howard Furman, of 203 Abel street and John Colbeck, of 30 German street, looked through the open door of the Tigar garage and saw the man slumped in a rocking chair. He was dead when they entered the garage.

Police headquarters was notified and Officers Fallon and Burns in one of the radio cars drove to the house. Mr. Chester B. Van Gaasbeck, police surgeon, also responded to a call and pronounced the man dead.

From the investigation made by Officers Fallon and Burns at the garage Tigar had taken his double barreled shotgun and clamped it to one of the uprights in the garage. Then he had drawn up a rocking chair, removed his shirt and leaned forward so that the muzzle of the gun rested against his bare chest, and had tripped the trigger with a stick.

Evidently he had been unable to operate both triggers for only one shell was discharged. The charge had torn a hole through his chest and heart and he had died instantly. The police found several notes Tigar had written before ending his life.

Coroner Lester D. Bullock of New Paltz, who had been called in, after an investigation gave a verdict of suicide.

Tigar, who was an upholsterer, had resided alone since the death of his wife the first of the year. He is survived by a son, Frank, an A. Tigar, last of Chester street, a daughter, Mrs. Jeanette, a son, Charles, and a brother, Charles Tigar of Rifton.

The body was turned over to Undertaker Thomas J. Wolf and funeral services will be held from the Wolf Funeral Home on Broadway on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with burial in Montrose cemetery.

Czechs Being Led To Sacrifice for Safeguard of Peace

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer.

New York, May 4.—The young and fiercely independent republic of Czechoslovakia, last stand of democracy in central Europe, is being led to the sacrificial altar by friends in an effort to propitiate the forces of peace.

She has been fighting desperately to preserve her domains intact in face of the demands for autonomy being made by her large German Nazi population, backed vigorously by Berlin.

Now with the opening of the conference between dictators Hitler and Mussolini in Rome, Britain is understood to have agreed to support Czechoslovakia.

In my letter of July 6, 1937, I estimated that the annual revenue from this tax would amount to $12,000. As of May 1, 1938, the sum of $8,669.59 was on deposit in the utility tax fund and it is estimated that additional receipts of $4,050 will be received for the remainder of the taxing period to June 30, 1938. This will make total receipts from this source $12,719.59, or $719.59 in excess of my estimate. When the entire tax has been collected, it will be disbursed for relief purposes only as provided by law.

In my letter of July 6, 1937, I recommended that a portion of the sum saved in relief expenditures by reason of this utility tax be spent to improve the city's street lighting system.

Carrying out these recommendations, the board of public works has since installed an ornamental street lighting system in the downtown business district, which increased 36 lights from 600 to 1,000 candle-power, and installed seven new 1,000 candle-power lights, a total increase of 12,000 candle-power. On Broadway, 117 lights on present poles were increased from 600 to 1,000 candle-power and 15 new candle-power lights were installed, a total increase of 62,500 candle-power on Broadway. This Broadway street lighting improvement, as recommended in my letter of July 6, was temporary and until such time as a new ornamental street lighting system is installed.

Writing of a single constitutional amendment giving the legislature broad power to act in all social problems such as housing, slum clearance, pensions and medical care, instead of clauses dealing with each individually, loomed today.

This development came as the constitutional convention's social welfare committee began a study of New York's social problems by conferring at a lengthy night meeting with state social welfare Commissioner David C. Adie, Homer Folks, head of the State Charities Aid Society, and other state institution officials.

Such a clause, if adopted by the convention, would mean the scrapping of numerous other proposals already before the convention designed to deal individually with the various social problems and would considerably shorten the 39,000-word document.

It simply would mean that the legislature, in a few well chosen words, would be given unprecedented power to act as it sees fit in all such problems, "one convention official said. "I believe it can very easily be done this way and prevent a lot of headaches and worry over all the other proposed individual clauses."

Adie told the committee he favored such a proposal, but refrained from making any specific suggestions.

Folks suggested that the constitution be amended so that the State Charities Board is empowered to visit institutions which do not receive public funds, as well as those which do and to clear the way for possible future transfer of state institutions now under the Department of Public Health or some other similar unit.

Pope "Sad" Because Nazi Cross Is Hoisted

Vatican City, May 4 (AP)—Pope Pius was quoted by L'Observateur Romano, the Vatican newspaper, as saying at Castle Gandolfo today that it was "a sad thing" that "the insignia of another cross that is not the cross of Christ" was hoisted in Rome on Holy Cross Day.

Yesterday was Holy Cross Day. It coincided with the arrival in Rome of Adolf Hitler, in whose honor the city was blanketed with the swastika, the Nazi emblem.

The Vatican organ said the Pope beseeched a group of newswriters to be faithful to Christian life and prayer, "since sad things are happening, very sad things, far and near."

"And among these sad things," he continued, "is this. That it is not considered exceedingly out of place and untimely to hoist in Rome on Holy Cross Day the insignia of another cross, that is not the cross of Christ."

"All this is enough to make people understand how much it is necessary to pray, pray and pray that God's mercy be shown and descend in all its greatness."

"We are in fact the first to have used of this infinite mercy of God, which has been extended from the beginning even to those who crucified our Saviour."

Hitler, who repeatedly has declared Germany's determination to retain her war-torn colonies, was said to have done most of the talking.

Duce Listens

Mussolini, who has described Italy as satisfied with the creation of her empire following the conquest of Ethiopia, listened.

This source said Czechoslovakia, Europe's latest trouble center, was not mentioned.

They stopped first on the morning round at the Pantheon, where are the tombs of Kings Vittorio Emanuele II, and Umberto I and his queen.

So quickly did Hitler and Mussolini leave the car to enter the Pantheon that German and Italian ministers and others of the party had to run to catch up.

The two dictators were greeted at the entrance by Monsignor Giuseppe Baccaria, chaplain to King Vittorio Emanuele III.

Salutes Prolate

It was Hitler's first encounter with a representative of the church since his arrival in Rome. He joined the Duce in raising a hand in salute to the purple robed prelate.

The Fuehrer deposited wreaths at the tombs of the two Italian kings, and paused briefly with Mussolini as they left to look back at the famous dome, with open center, through which drops of rain were beginning to fall on the rich red carpet spread for their feet.

The brilliant so-called "Hitler weather" which followed him into Italy yesterday soon gave way to chilly sun.

When a Fascist official yesterday remarked about the lovely "Hitler weather," the Fuehrer replied that it was "no longer Hitler weather—but Hitler and Mussolini weather."

Two Pertinent Points

None outside the group of immediate confidants knew what the two had to say in political planning today, but Rome diplomats suggested two pertinent points:

Premier Mussolini might sound out his guest on the much talked of five-power pact of peace among Italy, Germany, Britain, France and Poland.

Italy already has entered an agreement with Great Britain and is negotiating with France. Britain's Premier Chamberlain has indicated his hope eventually to bring Germany into a security agreement.

The Fuehrer likely will use the occasion to renew to Italy's premier his assurance that Germany is content to let Brenner Pass (gateway between German Austria and Italy) be his frontier, notwithstanding the presence of large numbers of German residents in the Italian Tyrol, which Italy won from Austria at the end of the World War.

What Hitler intends to do about Czechoslovakia and its German population, needless to say, was up for discussion, and there was speculation also on what the two leaders would decide about Spain.

Franco's Greetings

Spain's insurgent General Francisco Franco, recognized by Germany and Italy as legal head of Spain, sent greetings yesterday.

Both Italy and Germany are keenly concerned by British efforts to retire foreign troops from the civil war, at a moment when Franco appears to be forging ahead, and the Italian press was filled with accusations of foreign help to the Barcelona government.

Mussolini has agreed with Britain to retire Italian troops from Spain by the end of the war.

After their political conference Hitler and Mussolini attended a luncheon.

Hitler Raises Hand to Salute Prelate in First Encounter With Church

Rome, May 4 (AP)—Fuehrer Hitler began a week's heavily charged program as Italy's guest today by paying homage to Italy's kings and her unknown soldier, who lies in the vast white Vittoriano Emanuele monument in Venezia Square.

The Fuehrer laid a wreath at the soldier's tomb while hands blurred and his party saluted. They then went to Capolinea Hill to salute the monument to fallen Fascists.

Premier Mussolini called for his guest at Quirinale palace in an automobile and later, followed by 15 cars, they rode through the streets lined with guards and modest sized crowds.

The two dictators found two periods in the festive round for man-to-man talk on the purposes of their Nazi-Fascist friendship, and an informed source said their exchange dealt entirely with colonies.

Skimington at Zena

Zena, May 4—On Wednesday evening while the weekly card party was in progress at the Zena Country Club approximately 87 relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Montecina DeWitt gathered outside the club, carrying with them every imaginable noise maker to "serenade" them with an old fashioned skimmington.

After several minutes of serenading the happy couple opened the door, greeted the guests and invited them in. The evening was spent in visiting and dancing. A five piece orchestra made up of four local men and William Spaulding, of Wittenberg, furnished music for round and square dances. Mr. Spaulding also rendered several selections accompanying himself on his guitar. Refreshments were later served. It was after midnight when all left wishing Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt many years of happiness in their new adventure. The guests present came from Accord, Kingston, West Hurley, Wittenberg, Woodstock, Shultis Corners and Zena.

Leopold Godowsky Sits for Portrait

New York, May 1—Leopold Godowsky sat today for his portrait by Soss Melik.

Regarded as one of the greatest pianist-composers of the century, Leopold Godowsky was born February 13, 1870, the son of a prominent surgeon.

Following the graduation from the Berlin Hochschule, he departed from Germany for Paris where his unusual musical endowments were recognized by Saint-Saens.

Leopold Godowsky first played in public at the age of nine, touring Russia, Poland and Germany as a child prodigy.

His first American tour was from 1884 to 1886. He was director of the piano department of Chicago Conservatory of Music from 1895 to 1900.

In 1909 he was recalled to Europe and appointed by the Emperor of Austria to direct the Imperial Royal Academy of Music in Vienna.

At this post Leopold Godowsky has created the Imperial royal professorship of the highest rank unknown in Austria prior to his directorship.

Upon return to the United States, the Curtis Institute of Music has bestowed upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Music.

Kaufmann and Hansl term the great composer a prophet with a vision of a new art of the piano.

Mrs. Gusley Riley of Woodstock spent several days last week with her niece, Mrs. Howard Harcourt and family.

Mrs. G. Harold Sloane returned to her home on Tuesday from the Kingston Hospital.

Miss Helen Lamphere and Oliver Hyatt of Berlin were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Long on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marcus of New York, who have rented Mrs. Lloyd Woods' home arrived in Zena on Saturday.

Miss Carrie Cartright of Newburgh spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cartright.

Charles Watson, who has been ill with the flu, is gaining nicely.

Was Pupil of Saint-Saens

His talent has coerced him into performance, for he started to play the piano at three and developed such an uncanny technical proficiency all by himself that a pianist has been ever since.

From his 15th to his 20th year he was a pupil of Saint-Saens, but his lessons were highly informal. He would play the piano in Saint-Saens' studio, while the master, breakfasting in bed in the adjoining room, would call out comments and criticisms between sips of chocolate.

Evolved Theory of Relaxation

At 20, Godowsky stumbled upon a valuable discovery. While practicing 14 hours a day in preparation for concerts, he became so over-tired that his muscles were completely relaxed, and he found his hands resting upon the keyboard as a tired man rests in an armchair, playing by sheer weight, instead of percussion.

The portrait of the great musician by Soss Melik, was completed today.

To Represent U. S. in Europe

Dr. Godowsky is getting ready for his departure for Europe on May 4, where it is said, he will remain until the latter part of June.

Several weeks hence an international music congress will take place in Switzerland, for which occasion each nation of the world will be represented by her most outstanding and consummate exponent of music.

Announcement from the Hon. Cordeell Hull, Secretary of State, bestows upon Leopold Godowsky the honor of participating in the European World's Greatest Master Musicians Congress as the music representative of the United States of America.

When interviewed on this topic Dr. Godowsky with his usual smile replied modestly that "he did not know he was so distinguished."

Regional Market To Open Monday

As a result of action taken by growers at the market in Newburgh on Saturday evening, 5:30 a. m. Monday, May 9, will see activities resumed at the Regional Market. Reports from the growers are responsible for the decision to open eight days in advance of last year. Local rhubarb, asparagus, green onions, radishes and possibly spinach will probably be offered the first morning. With an increase in volume and selection, opening time will be advanced later.

About 125 growers were present to register for annual stalls for the coming season. Registration will continue through this week to take care of those unable to be present Saturday. All holders of annual stalls last year are entitled to first refusal of stalls held last year if notice is received this week by the management.

Stalls remaining unclaimed at the end of the week will be available for new men beginning next Monday. So far no refusals have been received and many of the growers using the market on a daily basis last year have signed for annual stalls this year.

Growers enjoyed movies furnished through the courtesy of the Chilean Nitrate Educational Bureau of experimental work at Rutgers Experiment Station in plant fertilization. Refreshments were served by Schenpleins, new

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD

Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts

The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or over-tired, your stomach pours out too much acid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, bloating, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sick, sick and upset all over.

Stomach pills never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes three little black tablets called Bell-nut for indigestion to make the stomach pour out just the right amount of acid in 5 minutes and put you back on your feet. Bell-nut is so quick it is amazing and you feel better before it is out for Bell-nut for indigestion.

AND TALKS ON MATTERS MASCULINE

As the week-ends get warmer, it is becoming increasingly irksome to remain in the city. You had better start cultivating your cousin in the country so he'll crash through with an invitation to spend a week-end with him "down on the farm." So, as you make ready to "step-out" to the country, why not "step-up" your wardrobe with some of these topnotch suggestions. They'll make you feel that you've really thrown off your city shackles.

When the chap pictured above arrived on the links he had definitely "arrived" in the fashion picture as well. His heavy knit cardigan jacket had a chambray front, which imparts to a light garment all the qualities of a sportswear. Note the slide button on his breast pocket. An old favorite has returned to accompany him for the full season in his new cap, and his well-worn brogue shoes.

Could you use a few red hot tips on the sock market? Here are three pairs whose fashion authenticity permits them to speak for themselves. They're of lightweight wool, and this selection consists of diagonal stripes, Scotch checks, and wide horizontal stripes.

Another knitted cardigan. This time with full-cut raglan sleeves and suede leather front and back. There's adequate protection in this zephyr-weight garment. If you cannot withdraw to the safety of your shirt like the turtle, and if you would not have your neck sticking out in this uncertain weather, here is your solution—a lightweight turtle-neck sweater.

Esquire's etiquery

One of the best ways to brighten up your spring outfit is to slip into an odd waistcoat. Odd or occasional waistcoats have long been the fashion in England and fashion.

For town wear, a white linen waistcoat is very effective with a dark suit of any description. If you are wearing an Oxford grey jacket and striped trousers, a grey double-breasted waistcoat is the correct thing.

There is a wider selection suitable for use in the country. The tartan waistcoat is one of the best known, and these patterns come in a variety of colors to harmonize with any sort of country suit.

Another good country waistcoat is a yellow chambray model. These are particularly popular with "horse" men.

this waistcoat and it is a perfect accessory to wear with Saxony, flannel, or cheviot suits.

Another new note is the knitted waistcoat, which is really a type of cardigan except that it is pointed at the bottom like a waistcoat and is always sleeveless.

A few waistcoats can do a lot toward varying your appearance and their use actually has the effect of enlarging your suit wardrobe.

Negligence Action V. F. W. of Valley Settled Today

Indication of an active trial term of Supreme Court were evidenced this morning when Clerk James Shapiro called the 26 of the V. F. W., was re-elected on the day calendar. The case was settled today.

The first case on the calendar, Fred Hamel, guardian, and Mada Hamel against Harold Steeger, an action in negligence, was taken up for trial before Justice Schirick and a jury, but later was settled today.

The case moved for adjournment to October 2, 1938, between the car of Mada Hamel and that of Harold Steeger. Plaintiff, Fred Hamel, who was 15 years old at the time, sued by guardian to recover for injuries suffered. His mother, Mada Hamel, sued for the value of her car, for injuries she suffered and for the amount of doctor's bills and other expenses which she had to meet for care of Fred Hamel.

The plaintiff alleged that she had driven her 1934 Ford model T car from her home to the state road and was about to turn right to deliver the car where it had been sold. As she reached the main highway it stalled and she and her son had turned the car around and started to reach a garage for the purpose of starting the car when John Beaver, a neighbor, came along. He turned and was about to hit his car on the Ford to tow it when the Steeger car came along from the north and struck the Hamel car.

It is alleged that the Ford was in the extreme right of the road with the right wheels off the concrete. Mrs. Hamel was in the car behind the wheel and her son stood near the front-left fender and was struck by the Ford car and thrown across the road where he was picked up injured by Mr. Beaver after the crash. Both cars were headed south at the time of the crash.

Mr. Steeger denies negligence on his part and claims he was not responsible for the accident.

Roscoe V. Elsworth appears for the plaintiffs, who live in Esopus and Thomas J. Plunkett appears for the defendant.

No. 134, Charles D. Deyo against Catherine Schmitz. An action to recover on contract for work labor and services, was announced today.

Court recessed until 2 o'clock when the Hamel case was announced settled.

Public Spirited Citizens.

When C. Ray Everett was appointed city treasurer it was necessary for him—as for all city treasurers—to furnish a bond of $50,000.

Instead of the bond being furnished by an insurance company, four citizens signed the bond. Charles R. Everett, Philip Eiting, Edward Coykendall and Harry H. Flemming.

Last evening the bond was cancelled by the council as Mr. Everett retired from the city treasurer's office.

Alderman Zucca in commenting on the matter said that it was due to these public spirited citizens that the city had been saved the payment of a yearly premium of $500 on the bond.

Barbershop Ordinance.

Several years ago the barbers of the city took steps to have the council adopt an ordinance regulating barbershops in the city, but the ordinance was never adopted.

Last night the barbers had another proposed ordinance read at the council session which would require every barbershop to be licensed and regulating the hours of employment and sanitary conditions in the shops.

The ordinance was read by City Clerk E. J. Dempsey and referred to the laws and rules committee.

Bills and claims were read and the council then adjourned.

Organ Recital Will Be Three o'clock Friday

The recital at the municipal auditorium, featuring the Hammond electric organ, will be at three o'clock, sharp, and not four o'clock, Friday afternoon, as given in the official program.

The recital has been arranged for the special benefit of pupils at the schools, but it is announced that any persons interested will be welcomed.

Billing Holes

The Board of Public Works has a force of men at work getting Broadway ready for the Ulster County Apple Blossom Festival and the big Coronation Day parade Saturday morning.

The holes in the pavement on the Broadway hill are being filled. The power sweeper is also busy cleaning up the streets in the city to have the city spick and span for the opening of the festivities on Friday.

V. F. W. of Valley Elect Officers

Holmes S. Smith, of East road, Staatsburg, commander of the Hudson Valley Counties council of the V. F. W., was re-elected on the day calendar.

Others elected were J. H. L. Greene, of Kingston, junior vice commander; Harold Scales, Port Jervis, senior vice commander; George McCullough, Kingston, quartermaster; Capt. Francis Dale, Cold Spring, judge advocate; Edward Smith, Staatsburg, officer of the day; James Shaw, Poughkeepsie, adjutant; Dr. Mittenhead, Kingston, surgeon; Fred Hick, Port Jervis, county inspector; F. Law, Cold Spring, chaplain; and J. Reddington, trustee for three years.

Adjutant Shaw, a state department officer, installed the officers of the council.

Approximately 15 veterans represented the Vail-Wolf post of Poughkeepsie. Others represented in addition to the James Harvey Hustis post, Cold Spring, and the Vail-Wolf were the Rogers, Fleming, Port Jervis, Port William B. Wilson, Deacons, Dunlap Brothers, Middletown; John T. Kenney, Newburgh; Joyce-Schirick, Kingston; and Wallkill Valley, Walden.

The commander was invited to install the officers of the Kingston post at a dinner-dance, Friday, May 12, to be held at the Golden Rule Inn.

The next meeting of the council will be held at Walden, Sunday, June 5.

Glider Meet Will Be Held Despite Rumor to Contrary

A report, that seems to have gained considerable circulation, to the effect that the glider meet scheduled for the last two days of the Apple Blossom Festival, May 7 and 8, has been cancelled, was denied this morning by Leland P. Pulling of Ellenville, chairman of the Ellenville Noonday Club committee in charge of gliding activities.

Mr. Pulling said that the rumor probably originated because of the fact that the committee had been denied use of the site at either Mt. Mongola or Mt. Neenah, both places located on the Shawangunk Mountains opposite Ellenville. These sites have been used on occasion of previous gliding meets and Mt. Mongola had been selected as the site for the meet this week-end.

Outside of this hitch in the proceedings, however, the meet will go on as planned, gliders to take off from the field at the Wurtsboro airport, 12 miles south of Ellenville, on Route 209.

Mr. Pulling said that he had been in touch with Secretary Gale of the National Soaring Society and had received encouragement to proceed with plans for the meet, using the Wurtsboro site. So far as known members of the Metropolitan Soaring Society and others will be on hand for the meet, providing, of course, that favorable weather continues.

It is hoped that the planes may be gaining altitude at the Wurtsboro field they will be able to take a northeasterly course and make their way back along the mountain ridge towards Ellenville.

At Work on New Site.

Meanwhile, Mr. Pulling states, work on the proposed new take-off site for gliders near Sam's Point is under way and it is expected that the field will be cleared and a road opened up so that everything will be in readiness for the Memorial Day meet.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Colman's—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks nasty.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes Colman's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harshness, smelly, yet satisfying in making bile flow freely. Ask for Colman's Little Liver Pills by name. 25c. Scrupulously refuse anything else.

Czechs Being Led To Sacrifice

The idea is to prevent the creation of any situation which might lead to Hitler's direct intervention and thus likely precipitate another European war.

Danger Spot

Czechoslovakia is the danger spot of the moment, and this little country which was born out of the World War is in desperate straits.

She is virtually being asked to sacrifice her sovereignty, if that is the price of peace. Here is her quandary:

Konrad Henlein, Nazi leader in Czechoslovakia who claims to represent about a quarter of the total population, has demanded among other things complete autonomy for all Germans and closer relations with the fatherland. He has intimated that the alternative will be either civil war or foreign (that is, German) intervention.

Autonomy of the German areas within the state would create an almost impossible situation—a house divided against itself, part democracy and part Nazi.

No British Force

Britain has made it clear that she doesn't intend to employ force to save Czechoslovakia. France has promised to go to her aid if she is attacked by Germany, but has indicated that this is the limit.

The essence of that is that so long as Germany doesn't make a direct military attack on Czechoslovakia, the latter will have to look after herself, barring such moral pressure as her friends can bring to bear on Nazi Chieftain Hitler.

One of the vital questions bound to arise in the Hitler-Mussolini parley is whether the latter will keep hands off the Nazi program in Czechoslovakia and give his ally moral support in the face of French and British disapproval.

Seek Passage of Anti-Lynch Bill

May 2, 1938
Kingston Daily Freeman,
Kingston, N. Y.

Gentlemen: Kindly publish the following:

The local branch of the National Negro Congress has designated the week beginning May 8 as Anti-Lynching week in Kingston.

In making a city wide appeal for the passage of the Wagner-Van Nuys Anti-Lynch Bill, the executive committee of the local group, through its chairman, the Rev. L. A. Weaver, has sent the following letter to all ministers, priests, and rabbis in the community:

"The shelving of the Anti-Lynching Bill shows a grave crisis in the political life of the country.
The fact that a small minority can over-rule a decided majority by a shameless filibuster on a bill to protect American citizens from lawless mob violence and savage torture is a challenge to democracy and a menace to the lives and liberties of all oppressed negroes and other minority groups.

"The most fundamental consideration of humanity demands that every citizen, whatever his race or creed, shall enjoy equality before the law. The fight for a federal anti-lynching bill must go on until it is written into the statute books.

"The National Negro Congress is fully aware of the contributions of the church to every phase of social progress. The Congress calls upon the churches to continue their role of leadership by cooperation with the local council in their fight for the enactment of the anti-lynching bill and the progress of the negro people.

"Because of the urgent need of the passage of this bill, the Kingston Branch of the National Negro Congress urges you, in cooperation with other ministers in our city to devote your sermon next Sunday to a study of the Anti-Lynch Bill, and to urge your congregants to write letters to our Senators in Congress to pass this bill."

The following resolution was also adopted: "We declare our purpose to take active action of sentiments and congressmen to reconsider the bill to vote for closure against any filibuster and to vote for the passage of the bill on its merits at this session of Congress. We further declare it to be our purpose to join with other democratic forces to drive from political life those so-called representatives of the people who will dare to oppose the expressed will of the American people for the passage of this humane, progressive and necessary legislation.

We further call on all people and organizations to send letters to our senators and representatives in Congress to bring this bill out of committee to be voted upon at this session of Congress. The great mass of the American people must make their voices heard and compel the passage of the Anti-Lynching Bill.

Geysers attain their highest development in Iceland, New Zealand and the Yellowstone Park.

LOOKING WESTWARD

"Westward the course of empire takes its way," as the poet said long ago. And by a curious reversal, when you go far enough westward, the West becomes the East. The lands that face us across the Pacific we still call the Far East or the Orient, although to Americans looking from the Pacific Coast it is where the sun sets. To us the Land of the Rising Sun is Japan, not England.

And in that strange fusion of East-West, which our fast Clipper Airships bring ever closer, there are many problems. Karl H. Von Wiegand, ace correspondent in the World War, returning to America from the Asiatic front, writes in a philosophic mood:

"As I turn my back on the Orient, I am conscious of the thought that I am leaving behind me three of the greatest problems in the world today:

"The problem of Japan," with her need of expansion and markets;

"The problem of China," to modernize herself and use her human and material resources;

"The problem of America—to retain the Philippines, or to withdraw from the Far East to the naval defensive line of the Aleutian Islands and Hawaii to Panama."

Europe, with her complex problems and our many links of blood, business and government, is very important; but it will not do to neglect Asia.

RUSSIAN EASTER

The churches were crowded in Moscow, on the Russian Easter—mostly by women. But there were only 20 of those churches remaining out of the 430 that existed before the revolution. And in them, along with the formal worship and the blessing of Easter foods by the patriarchs, there was doubt and dread. For another great "liquidation" of alleged counter-revolutionary plotters was beginning, this time among the churches and monasteries.

The younger generation of Russia has grown up not only to disregard religion, but to hate it, as a fabric of lies and superstitions opposed to revolutionary principles. People, and particularly young people, have to believe in something; so the Red leaders made a religion of Bolshevism, with Marx and Lenin as its prophets. And that has seemed to serve the purpose. For years foreign observers have seen with surprise the zeal and glow of those young men and women, as they studied their scriptures and strove to remake the world in a Communist pattern.

But lately there are intimations of shaken faith. All these strange public trials and theatrical "confessions," this coming of the country for disloyal "wreckers," this final attack on the few remaining religious institutions—are not they in themselves shaking the faith of millions? The Russians always had a strong bent toward religion. If they become disillusioned about their Communist system, under Stalin's relentless system of blood-purging, will they not swing back to religious faith again?

TOYS IN AMERICA

Business depression and foreign militarism have had little effect on playthings in the United States. When the annual American Toy Fair opened for its two-week display in New York the other day there were five per cent more buyers on hand than on the first day a year ago. Ten per cent more toys are on display, those in the higher price brackets attracting the most attention and the most active buying. Retail stores are not cutting their toy department budgets. Military toys comprise less than one per cent of the exhibits, which cover seven acres of floor space.

Interest in higher-priced toys is explained by the fact that more parents seek well-constructed and durable playthings and are willing to pay more to obtain them. The "dolls" toys are numerous and varied. They include microscopes, chemistry outfits, building sets and handcraft equipment.

Another new trend in the appearance of farm toys—their appearance, spreaders and tractors. There are many mechanical toys and many miniature replicas of equipment which duplicate articles used in the home, such as toy electric stoves which may be used for actual cooking on a very small scale. It is a cheerful picture, suggesting a country whose children are occupied with normal and wholesome living, not prematurely devoted to war.

SHORTEST BANQUET TALK

If Henry Ford's recent public statements do not all seem quite clear to newspaper readers, let it be remembered that even the pronouncements of the ancient Delphic oracle were obscure to the lay questioner. Reporters then, as recently, were left uncertain what they'd heard, what it meant or how it should be interpreted.

One Ford quality, however, deserves respect and gratitude among listeners. That was the brevity of the announced "address" at the banquet of the Bureau of Advertising in connection with the American Newspaper Publishers' Association meeting. A single sentence of reassurance, as follows, was all the automotive giant spoke. "Mr. Toastmaster, ladies and gentlemen: We are all on a spot, and stick to your guns, and I will help you with the assistance of my son all I can. Thank you." Brevity and wit, it appears, are not always linked, but when the latter is missing the former is more than ever welcome.

An amateur economist explains that "spending for prosperity" is like raising the level of the water in a bathtub by dipping it out of one end and pouring it into the other end.

The Chinese say they are sure of winning, and they are probably right. Their children will drive out the Japs.

Leave it to the autocrats. When they're killed or banished all their best men, their systems will collapse.

Some people think it's the politicians that spoil everything, and some think it's the business men, and some think it's the sunspots.

After Hitler has confiscated and used up the Jews' capital, whose capital will he grab?

"I'll face the land, to hastening ill a prey," where public scandals don't get into the papers.

"Russia Says Japs Won't Play Ball." Now there's an idea! Couldn't those grouchy neighbors settle everything with a Eurasian series of ball games?

PREVENTING CONSTIPATION

There is a large number of the population who think of the large bowel—colon—as always full of waste matter which must be removed immediately or the poisons in the wastes will be absorbed into the blood and cause many symptoms—laziness, drowsiness, pains in joints, depressed spirits, and others.

As a matter of fact it is true that a "full" colon will cause the above symptoms partly because of poisons being absorbed into the blood, and also, as Dr. Walter Alvarez, Mayo Clinic, has pointed out, because the very weight of this waste in colon may cause symptoms by pulling on the nerves in colon and supporting structures.

However Nature never meant that these wastes should be vigorously pushed or flushed out by purgative medicines, because a colon, (large bowel) that requires constant flushing out, cannot remain a healthy bowel. The bowel was not meant to be completely empty. The healthy bowel is able to push wastes downward and out of the body by means of its muscles.

Muscle tissue can only be kept strong by exercise and if there are no wastes, nothing for the muscles to work against, the muscle tissue will become flabby, just as unused muscles elsewhere in the body become flabby from lack of exercise.

Nature gave man two methods of keeping the wastes moving down the large intestine—exercise, and rough or fibrous parts of the food. Thus all the bending exercises, with knees bent straight, exercise or work on the outer abdominal muscle, which in turn massage the muscle of the large bowel and stimulate action. In addition, the exercise squeezes the liver which causes an extra flow of bile into intestine, and bile is Nature's purgative.

The fibrous foods which not only rub against the nerve endings of large bowel and stimulate bowel action, also have something in them, aside from the roughness, which stimulates the bowel. Thus the easily digested foods—meat, eggs, fat, sugar, and starches—do not leave enough rough or fibrous waste to stimulate bowel action so that foods with hard or fibrous waste in them—fruits, vegetables, and cereals—must be eaten to prevent constipation.

Nervous, high strung individuals, with a tendency to stomach or intestinal ulcer, must, of course, avoid these rough foods, and, if unable to exercise, may need a laxative as prescribed by their physician.

Just One More Chance

IF JUDITH had been harassed and uncertain before she wrote to Reuben, she was swept into an avalanche of bewilderment now. Had she acted too hastily? Would Reuben be disgusted by her lack of restraint? Had she been too humble? Suppose he didn't answer? Suppose—

Then there was Gary to be reckoned with. Not that she had any illusions about Gary—the last one had died, struggling—but he had died. Gary would be furious because he was not to have his own way, but grieved?

She couldn't associate great distress or deep grief with Gary unless the mishap was physical and purely personal to Gary; however, Gary must be reckoned with.

Time dragged like a snail—it flew on hummingbird's wings. There were three days left until Christmas. There were two days. There was one day. It was Christmas Eve—no word from Reuben—no word.

Jim came down the hall, stood looking at the bravely bedecked pine. The prettiest tree we've ever had. The kids will adore it.

"Yes," Judith agreed tonelessly. Jim shot his sister a quick approving glance. "Want to go with me for crow's-foot? They," he indicated the gilt framed Goodloes, "must be decorated. It's funny a man must die before he gets a wreath of living green." He turned away. "Want to come?"

Judith came down the ladder. "Wait 'til I get a coat."

Outside the world was softly gray, with sharp little gusts of wind and soft little flurries of snow. A day that seemed to proclaim the world was doing its best to make ready for the blessed peace that was to descend upon it at midnight.

Peace! There was none of it in Judith's heart. None in Jim's. Say, in little they walked side by side across frozen fields; climbed a rail fence and entered a dim, stark wood. The path ran between hills. There was little wind here. A dry, woody smell. Dead rustling leaves.

"Don't you love it, Jim?" "The place? Better than anything, I guess."

She followed him across the little stream. Thin ice bordered its edges. On a sloping hillside, almost hidden by dead leaves, creeping cedar made a bright green carpet.

Ah—here was a tiny root of bitter-sweet. And suddenly she was back in Reuben's garden. The gulch—the deepest, muddiest part of it—with Reuben. They were searching for bitter-sweet, pine cones, spruce tassels—anything that would relieve the drabness of their first Christmas in the despaired little house in Casper Street. The afternoon had been warm, sultry. The ground soft. She had slipped in the red mud and Reuben had caught her, held her close.

'Eat Humble Pie'

JUDITH's busy fingers tightened around the crow's-foot. It just once more she could hear the steady beat of Reuben's heart. Feel his arms—a protecting wall—

An unbidden tear trickled down her nose. Ashamed she brushed it away, looked up quickly to meet Jim's worried, dark eyes.

"You too, Judy?" "She nodded."

For a long moment they busied themselves with the evergreen. Jim said: "I've made ducks and drakes of my life."

"I've messed mine up, too, Jim."

Another silence. Judith said hesitantly: "Debt again, Jim?" "Debt again," bitterly.

"Personal?" "Not entirely. Gran is involved, too. My fault." His slim brown hands became suddenly idle. A shadow darkened his face. "I can't figure it out, yet. That stock deal looked so good."

"They always do."

"I've learned my lesson, Judy. If I could only have one more chance."

"One more chance!" She echoed it prayerfully. "I guess we miss heaven by just one chance."

Jim stuffed crow's-foot into the burlap bag. He avoided looking at his sister. He said: "It's Oliver's fault."

"Tine."

"Then eat humble pie, old dear. Make it up."

"I've tried. Too late."

"I didn't guess. I was afraid maybe it was Gary."

"It was—at first. I had a sort of obsession for years. I'm cured."

She wound a handful of the creeper into a bundle and stuffed it into the bag. "I'm home to stay, Jim. You'll have to help me raise the children."

"You think I'm fit, Judy?" "I know you are."

"Gosh! I'd like to teach them to avoid my mistakes."

"Maybe we had to make them. Jim. We'll not shield the babies as we were shielded. We'll put responsibilities upon them."

"You're right."

"Then eat humble pie, old dear. Make it up."

"I've tried. Too late."

"I didn't guess. I was afraid maybe it was Gary."

"It was—at first. I had a sort of obsession for years. I'm cured."

COUNTY Christian Endeavor NEWS

REV. EARLE W. GATES
The Rev. Earle W. Gates, general secretary of the New York State Christian Endeavor Union, will speak at a special county-wide service for Christian Endeavorers and friends held Thursday evening, May 12, at the First Presbyterian Church on Elmendorf street. This service will begin at 7:30. Milton P. Townsend has arranged this service and requests that members of the County Union make a special effort to be present.

Service at Forsyth Park
Another in the series of Sunday evening devotional services sponsored by the Ulster County Christian Endeavor Union will be held out-of-doors at Forsyth Park, Kingston, on Sunday evening, May 22, beginning at 7:30. A special speaker will be heard.

Spring Rally, June 18
Miss Dora Pratt, chairman of the annual spring rally, has announced that this year's event will take place at Tilton Lake on June 18. There is a possibility of the County Union running a bus from Kingston to this rally.

State Convention
In reference to the New York State Convention to be held in Brooklyn, June 30-July 3, Nelson H. Lewis requests that Endeavorers begin making plans to attend this gathering and also get to work on the posters for the county contest which will close at the spring rally on June 18. Details concerning the convention may be obtained by writing Mr. Lewis at 47 New Street, Kingston.

Wurts Street Election
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Wurts Street Baptist Church held an election of officers Thursday evening. Miss Eleanor L. Bundy is the new president; Miss Phyllis Y. Hogan, vice president; Miss Dorothy L. Davis, secretary; treasurer, Miss Edna Mae Hamilton, chairman of the social committee; Miss Ethel Mae Van Doorn, publicity chairman; and Gilbert A. Barnhardt, program chairman. Plans were discussed for attendance at the Baptist Convention at Beacon on May 10. Sunday evening the society held the regular meeting at 6:15 with Miss Phyllis Y. Hogan and Gilbert A. Barnhardt as leaders.

New Paltz Meeting
The New Paltz Christian Endeavor Society met Sunday evening with Richard Lent and Florence Turner in charge of the meeting. The topic for discussion was "Toward a Better Racial Understanding." Next week's meeting will be at the home of Mr. Johnson, beginning at 6 o'clock, and each member is requested to bring his supper with him.

Rosendale Activities
The Rosendale group held a business meeting Thursday evening. Among the various matters discussed by the members was the acquisition of a Christian Endeavor flag, measuring four feet by six feet and similar to the flag now owned by Bellamy Society, which has a navy blue field with a white cross and a large red C. E. monogram; a pot luck supper and skating party in conjunction with Bethany; and the attendance at the county union service of May 12. A planned attendance of the Christian Endeavor members at church service on Sunday morning was recorded as a success.

The Comforter Group
Sunday's meeting at the Comforter Society was led by Miss Florence Parr with the topic, "To Be in a Changing World," being discussed. The uncertainty of obtaining a position in the world of the present was stressed as one of the greatest problems facing the younger generation. Next Sunday's meeting will consider the topic, "How to Choose a Vocation Wisely," and will be led by Henry P. Eighmey. Friday evening, May 13, the social committee has planned a covered dish supper to precede the regular business meeting which in turn will be followed by a social program.

Blossom Time at Bethany
The May business meeting will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This society will unite with the Rosendale Society in a pot luck supper and roller skating party on Wednesday, May 11. The supper will take place at the chapel at 6:30 and the skating at Spring Lake rink. This society will be present with full membership at the C. E. rally at the Elmendorf Street Presbyterian Church on May 12. The club is putting the finishing touches on the apple blossoms and the record shows that something over 5,000 blossoms have been made. Members have visited orchards in full bloom, and pictorial records have been made of blossoms for future use. A special Mother's Day observance will be held on Sunday evening, May 15, at which time the C. E. will arrange a table dedicated to Mothers, and act as a choir for the service.

Woodstock
Woodstock, May 4.—A special service for Mother's Day will be given Sunday morning in the Dutch Reformed Church. Special cello music will be provided by Dr. Hans J. Cohn, of Woodstock, who plays each week at Vassar College. On Sunday evening a young people's program with recitations and tableaux will be given, entitled "The Mothers of the Bible." Mr. and Mrs. William Terwilliger have been ill with covers attacks of bronchitis.

A prolonged stay with her family in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamonte Simpkins, with the Rev. Harvey I. Todd, Mrs. Todd, Stephen Todd and Mrs. M. Wyckoff, enjoyed a Sunday picnic in Bear Mountain Park.

Man About Manhattan
By George Tucker
NEW YORK—Like the doctor in "Grand Hotel," nothing ever happens when I'm around. I was in the Howdy club, a late hour Greenwich Village rendezvous, just an hour before it was held up the other morning. Three thugs came in, whipped out guns, clubbed a couple of customers and made so much noise that the cops arrived in time for a shooting bee before they could escape. All three of the thugs and one policeman shot.

And just the day before I was talking to Merle Oberon about her Regency house in London, which she is rehabilitating in the 1893 style to which it was intended. Shortly thereafter she attended a theater and was advised by her chauffeur that a couple of jewel thieves had an eye on her. She was greatly disturbed. She and her two escorts went into the Casa Manana, where Billy Rose called in a couple of detectives and then read her a polite but sympathetic lecture.

"YOU shouldn't wear so many 'jewels,' he advised her earnestly. 'These are unprincipled times. You should be more careful.'"

The next day I went back to see her at her hotel and the petite star with the honey-colored hair and thin brows like two vague crescents was stunningly attired in a mustard colored dress with fur sleeves and a fur bib. I suppose it was a bib. The front of the dress was fur. She also wore a shining, napoleonic emblem at the left of the throat which was in gold of three colors and diamonds. A ring and bracelet matched.

Just thirty years ago, the first Mother's Day was originated by Ann Jarvis of Philadelphia, who was inspired to work toward the official recognition of such an event by reverence for her own beloved and accomplished mother. In 1914, Woodrow Wilson, as President, proclaimed Mother's Day as a national day of observation by children of all ages—everywhere. This is another Mother's Day—1938—and there is no one among us so preoccupied, so distant, or so heedless of the blessing of having a mother to cherish—that we can let the day pass without expressing our thanks to God... and to her... your mother and mine. It is in such a reverent spirit that the advertisers on this page offer their many attractive suggestions.

Have More Fun With Your Camera

Week-end fun! You want your camera to catch the high spots! Know ahead of time answers to questions likely to pop up when you're "shooting".

How to take "natural" shots of your gang? Snap them playing games, diving, dancing—by stepping up your shutter speed. Take fast action at 1-100 second.

How to take clear shots in the late afternoon light—of boats returning to harbor, of a neighbor turning home? Open your lens twice as wide as you do for lens-day shots.

Can you depend on a box camera in bright sunlight only? With special film you can take good shots shortly after sunrise—almost until sunset.

How to take flattering pictures of your friends? Don't let them squint straight at the sun. Let the light fall at an angle. What makes a picture artistic?

A point of interest—a gnarled tree, a person dramatically silhouetted against the sky. Let your high spot be off center.

How to get a good distance shot of a sparkling lake, a sloping hillside? Give depth to your picture by taking it within a "frame" of trees. Use a small lens opening, f.16.

Easy to avoid "dud" mistakes such as blurred faces, fuzzy landscapes. Our 40-page booklet, SUCCESSFUL AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHY, is packed with pointers for all types of cameras. Indoor shots. Landscapes. Portraits. Good ideas for prize pictures.

Send 15c for our booklet, SUCCESSFUL AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHY, to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Institute, 109 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of book-let.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The oddest literary office in town at present is on a movie set. Two writers and a girl secretary labor there, the click of the portable keys stilling intervals while the current scene for the movie they're writing is being filmed and recorded.

The office is a canvas shack, about eight feet square. The writers are Bruce Manning and Felix Jackson. From the door, the scribes can peer out and see how the scene they've just written is being played, and see (more pertinently) how much longer they have to turn out the next.

All this sounds very much like the movie business as caricatured in those stage lampoons like "Once in a Lifetime" and "Boy Meets Girl." And yet—when the kid-ding's finished and you get down to facts—it isn't such a funny, inefficient mode of movie-making. If it is then it's the same that turned out "Three Smart Girls" and "One Hundred Men and a Girl" and that to movie fans and fainting bankers alike, should be argument enough that Henry Kostler's way of making pictures is a good way.

The picture in question is "The Rage of Paris." That's the story in which Danielle Darrieux of France is bowing to the Hollywood cameras. She's getting $4,000 a week, and she was getting it all the weeks she waited while they prepared a story. That would be reason enough for haste which might make waste.

Must Be A Smash

But from the movie point of view this Darrieux is a mighty important property. They couldn't rush into production with just any story, even to save time. Darrieux is with Universal for five years, and to realize the maximum return in five years the first picture has to be a smash. So they had not one, but two stories, ready to shoot before "The Rage of Paris" was selected as best for an introductory vehicle.

And now, even though they're writing as they go along, Manning and Jackson are writing from a finished script. A scene at a time—just a jump ahead of the camera, and sometimes only a 10-minute jump at that—they polish, revise, point up scenes, twist dialogue. From 7:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. they're with Kostler who is a brilliant young director as his work attests. Each night they plan out with him the next day's shooting.

Not Temperamental

By all the laws this "Rage of Paris" set should be a madhouse, and it would be interesting to report that it is. The dull truth is that it's a pleasant place; that Miss Darrieux, with no as a foreigner could "get by" with temperamental explosions, doesn't have them but persists in being agreeable, democratic, and unassuming.

Labor Negotiations

Bay City, Mich., May 4 (AP)—Negotiations between the United Auto Workers union and the Chevrolet small parts plant here were to start today following an unauthorized sitdown strike that lasted six hours yesterday. The plant, which normally employs 2,300, was to remain closed during the parley. Homer Martin, U.A.W. president, and other international officers of the union, said it was a wildcat strike and began efforts to end it immediately.

"Entirely False"

Washington, May 4 (AP)—Reports that Chairman Marriner Eccles of the federal reserve board had engaged in a dispute with Henry Ford at the recent White House conference are "entirely false," Eccles said in a formal statement. He described the conference, at which President Roosevelt was host, as "a most informal and friendly affair."

Broadway: "Test Pilot", Considered by many to be the most brilliant melodrama of the year, "Test Pilot" comes to the Broadway stage in all the excitement which surrounds men whose job it is to fight with death in order to make the airways safe for passenger and commercial flying. This is the story of a reckless test pilot whose duty consists of testing new safety devices on airplanes and who takes planes to high altitudes to see how much pressure they will stand before the wings rip off. It is a lively, spirited picture, filled with danger, romance and comedy. The dialogue is especially well written and the work of Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Myrna Loy and Lionel Barrymore is a joy to see. The sky scenes are done with fascinating perfection and there are many moments of real suspense. Produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, this film is a stand-out bit of entertainment, recommended to everyone.

Kingston: "Dangerous to Know", Gail Patrick, Akim Tamiroff, Tony Quinn and Anna May Wong are the principals in the first attraction on the Kingston double feature bill in a pulse quickening story of people who gambled for high stakes with death the outcome of failure. "Everybody's Doing It" has a plot that centers around a puzzle contest with Sally Eilers and Preston Foster in featured roles.

Why the car that made automobile history is the car you ought to buy

THE PACKARD EIGHT

Also known as the Packard 110
—leader for three consecutive years among all cars now priced* from $1255 and up, delivered at the factory

When motor-wise America hands the lion's share of the laurels to any one motor car, it's a sure bet that car is a better car. And, for the past three years, America has preferred the Packard Eight (also known as the Packard 120) to all cars in the above price range. In fact, taking totals for the past three years, almost as many people bought Packard Eights as bought the next two cars combined in this price class.

If you'll drive and inspect the new Packard Eight, we believe you'll quickly agree with this majority verdict. We're anxious to show you how easy a Packard Eight is to own. Drop in tomorrow!

Peter Keresman Is A. B. C. Prexy; Cremar Adds to Boxing Card

Local Patrolman Is Returned as Bowling Leader

Dinner May 18

Retiring President Gil Sampson, Secretary C. J. Tiano Receive Thanks for Work

At the meeting of the Kingston A. B. C. Association in the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night, Patrolman Peter Keresman was honored with the presidency of the group for the second time.

Keresman, one of the prime movers in bringing the A. B. C. to Kingston, was the first president of the local group. Gil Sampson succeeded him last year.

It is the consensus of bowlers that with Keresman back at the helm, the association will continue along the same successful course over which Past President Sampson piloted it this past year.

While he was head of the A. B. C. in its first year, President Keresman did an admirable job. He same as he did for the city league in serving that organization as prexy for 10 consecutive years.

Retiring President Gil Sampson, cooperation of every bowler during next season. He'll still serve in an executive position, having been elected to the office of treasurer.

Other officials of the past year returned to office were James G. Horton, first vice president, and Charles J. Tiano, secretary.

The full list of officers elected: President, Peter J. Keresman; first vice president, James G. Horton; second vice president, Martin Kellenberger; third vice president, Thomas Rowland; fourth vice president, Addison Jones; secretary, Charles J. Tiano; treasurer, Gilbert Sampson; executive committee, J. Frederick Scott, Peter Bruck, Clifton Quick, Harry Sutton.

All of the elections were unanimous, except that for third vice president, in this Tom Rowland received 11 votes and Augustus Wiedemann, 4.

On motion of M. Kellenberger, Secretary Tiano was instructed to send a letter of thanks to Peter Keresman, for his cooperation with A. B. C. officials during Kingston visits.

On Gil Sampson's motion, the Y. M. C. A. was awarded $10 towards helping defray expenses of installing new kickbacks on the alleys there.

Secretary Robert L. Sison of the "Y" personally thanked the A. B. C. for stimulating bowling at the institution, and for assistance given.

Vice President Norton suggested that the several bowling organizations of the city take a vote on whether or not it would be appropriate to combine all of the annual banquets into one big affair to be known as the A. B. C. banquet.

Votes of thanks were given Gilbert Sampson, retiring president, and Secretary Charles J. Tiano for their services during the past season, and the executive committee was also thanked.

The annual dinner dance of the A. B. C. will be held at the Stuyvesant Hotel, Wednesday evening, May 18, at which time league prizes will be distributed to winners in the city tournament.

Thomas to Pitch Against Can-Ams

Thursday evening the Colonials will play a twilight game with the Canadian American League All Stars, starting at 6 o'clock, at the Athletic Field. The first contest on the Smith avenue diamond is expected to draw a crowd.

Manager Fred Davi said Bill Thomas probably will start on the mound for the locals. Joe Brown being slated to toss at Saugerties stadium there.

Whitely Tulacz or Ross Barkwell are fingers for the Can-Ams, who get the assignment to oppose Thomas.

After being in a batting slump since the beginning of the season, Lou Gehrig, iron man first baseman of the Yankees, managed to blast his way out with a home run in the first inning of the St. Louis Browns-Yankees game in New York's Yankee Stadium. He drove the ball into center field, Hoag (No. 9), while awaiting his turn at bat, watches the play breathlessly.

One Jockey, 6 Winners

San Francisco, May 4 (AP)—Jackey Basil James headed in six winners at Tanforan Track yesterday, including Grim Reaper in the $2,000-added feature race. Johnny Dams rode six consecutive winners in one day at the recent Bay Meadows meeting.

Dean Says He's Just Tired and Not in Shape Yet

Chicago, May 4 (AP)—Dizzy Dean has turned in three victories for the Chicago Cubs, but he still hasn't answered the question that has the fans running around in circles. He is the famous $185,000 salary man as good as ever or is it fading?

Dizzy has worked in four games, getting credit for winning three, but he has pitched only one nine-inning stretch since joining the Cubs three weeks ago. He was removed after seven innings against the Phillies yesterday when he said: "I just ain't in shape yet, I'm plumb petered out."

Perspiration dripped from Dean's face as he plunked himself down on a chair in the clubhouse.

"I just ain't in shape yet," he explained. "I had a lot of stuff out there but I just didn't have enough strength. This ain't like last Friday, my arm don't hurt more than just a little bit. I'm just tired, that's all. I'll be all right just as soon as I get more work. I know I wasn't in shape because I'm already 11 pounds lighter than when I joined the club and I now weigh 193. My best weight is 185."

Grimm Agrees
Manager Grimm shares Dean's view. He said: "Dizzy is just tired, that's all. There is nothing serious. He will be okay when he gets in about ten days more work."

Hartnett, who has caught them all and should know whereof he speaks, spoke enthusiastically about Dean, indicating he felt no alarm. He said he was in far better shape than when he joined the Cubs.

Dean has yet to be charged with a defeat, has pitched 22 2/3 innings and has yielded only five runs, three of which were earned. Both Philadelphia tallies yesterday were unearned, and there were only three putouts in the outfield while he was working.

All this sounds convincing for the fan who wants to believe there's nothing wrong with that prize arm but until it delivers for nine consecutive innings there will be plenty of argument.

'HOT DOGS' forced this spectator at the Penn relays in Philadelphia to seek the most natural remedy: she took out her shoes and let her toes cool while watching jumpers, relay teams, sprint men striving to set new records.

Warneke, McGee and Bremer Big Factor in Helping Cards

(By The Associated Press)

The old Gas House Gang ain't what it used to be. In fact it hardly has recovered from the sale of its great mouthpiece, Dizzy Dean, to Chicago. But with a flock of new Gas Houseers beginning to show promise, the St. Louis Cardinals may have their usual piece to say about the National League pennant race.

Latest to encourage the fans' hope that St. Louis may cause trouble are Lou Warneke, veteran right hander, and the new battery of Bill McGee and Herb Bremer.

Warneke has won his last two starts in fine style. McGee, getting his first trial as a starting pitcher, limited the Boston Bees to six hits and fanned six yesterday to outpoint the able Lou Fette 3 to 2. Bremer, who may fill the Cards' demand for a regular catcher, provided the first two runs with a homer and Don Guttridge made the third the same way.

Meanwhile Dean, who retired from a game last week with a sore pitching arm, worked his finger for seven good innings against the Phillies and got credit for Chicago's 5-2 victory. Dizzy was hit hard and looked tired when he turned over the job to Charley Root, but the Cubs gave him enough support to make up for any shortcomings. Young Joe Marty and old Gabby Hartnett hit homers.

Giants Bow
The victory put the Cubs closer to the top as Cincinnati's Reds brought the New York Giants' 11-game winning streak to an undignified end by licking the league leaders 10 to 2. While Paul Derringer pitched eight-hit ball, the Reds collected six runs and the game in the fifth when Hal Schumacher found his old-time jinx over Cincinnati no longer was effective.

Brooklyn's star rookie, Forrest Presnell, banded the Pittsburgh Pirates their fifth straight defeat as the Dodgers manufactured a six-run seventh inning to win 7-2.

The American League standings were shuffled as Philadelphia's Athletics hopped from eighth to sixth place and both the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees slid past Washington.

With Buck Ross hurling live-hit ball and getting the benefit of a six-run outburst in the third, the A's trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7 to 2. Cleveland's league leaders outlasted the Senators, 10 to 9 as Ken Keltner, rookie third sacker, eluded two homers and a single to drive in six runs.

Yanks Trim Browns
Old Lefty Grove went ten innings to beat Detroit 4-3 for his third victory and become the eightth finger in major league history to register 2,000 strikeouts. He whiffed six and would have had a lot easier time if he hadn't thrown home run balls to Hank Greenberg and Charley Gehringer.

Lou Gehrig's first four-ply wallop of the season cheered the New York Yankees' fans and helped beat the St. Louis Browns 5-1. It came in the four-run first inning. Lou also hit a double and Tommy Henrich tossed in a homer.

New York Star in Replacing W. Smith Bolsters Program

(By The Associated Press)

Yesterday's move on the part of the local boxing sponsors in replacing Willie Smith, star lightweight, with Richard Cremar, a greater fighter in the estimation of those who saw him shellack Middletown's Sammy Jackson, is expected to add magnetism at the box office.

"Kingston fans have been asking for Cremar," said Samuel J. Riber of the Kingston A. C. today. "Should he be a bigger house Thursday night when that bill of fistic stars is presented at the municipal auditorium."

Without Cremar, the list of scraps had plenty of appeal with such batters as Bradley Lewis, Eddie Jones and Jimmy West, all New Yorkers matched against a team of all New England champions. However, this metropolitan Golden Gloves champ should add a lot to the drawing power of the program.

Headlines the New Yorkers and champions, there is plenty appeal in the three preliminaries for local fight lovers. Their favorites, Charley Ragins, Frankie Albright and Monk Armstrong billed to trade leather.

The full list of bouts:
Bradley Lewis, national middleweight champ, New York, vs. Hugh Conerty, New England title holder.
Richard Cremar, New York, metropolitan Golden Gloves champ, vs. Babe Chippin, New England, who holds three decisions over Tackle Ford, national champ.
Eddie Jones, New York, who kayod Red Van Alstyne, vs. Billy White, Salem, Mass.
Vince Suppaci, Albany, U. S. Army champion of Hawaii last year, vs. Jimmy West, New York star.

Prelims
Charley Ragins, Saugerties, vs. Al Fridtiff, Albany.
Frankie Albright, Kingston, vs. Johnny Pampinella, Ithaca.
Monk Armstrong, Kingston, vs. Jimmy Thomas of Albany.

Wiltwyck Dance Plans Develop for 21st—Colonial Banquet May 12

By Joe Kelly

As a diversion in her leisure hours away from the recent U. P. Food Show, Elsie Bauer, queen of the Hillsboro-Denver Corp., Baltimore, Md., did a lot of fishing... Had some bad luck, too... Caught a dandy twelve-inch bass but had to toss it back... Out of season, you know... So she treated us to some of that good orange and black soup instead of a fish dinner... Miss Bauer likes Ulster county... Wishes she could come back for the Apple Blossom Festival... Not a bad idea, because Elsie isn't hard to look at. Note: Bass season opens July 1.

Joe Koenig has plans humming for that Spring Dance at the Wiltwyck Golf Club on Saturday night, May 21... The public is invited... The way invitations are being accepted from members up to a successful event... Tuesday, May 10, is the opening day of the City Baseball League... Grunewald and Jones Dairy start the proceedings... There probably will be a jam of customers... Thursday night of this week, Bradley Lewis, cousin of John Henry Lewis, poor lightweight champ, boxes at the auditorium... Better order your seats early... There should be a capacity house... Bradley doesn't have to travel on his relative's rep... He's a national middleweight champion in his own right... Charlie Ragins and Frankie Albright will be on the card in the preliminaries... They are matched with good boys... Charlie and Frankie are local favorites.

Tom Morrissey is the new president of the City Bowling League... This means a whole new season next winter... Tom is a sports enthusiast, and a bowling booster if there ever was one... Good luck Tommy... Thursday night, May 12, is the date for the Colonial Bowling League banquet at the Marion Inn... Secretary Ken Van Eiten and his boys will have plans for the feed at the tonight's meeting... Richard Cremar, the New York lightweight who shellacked Sammy Jackson, should get one of the biggest ovations at the auditorium, Thursday night... Efforts to get him back several times failed... But, he'll be on and this time.

Hercules blasted the Apollo outfielders by a 5-0 count last night at Hasbrouck... Nick Fertica lit the fuse with three successive homers... The power boys' left fielder exploded six runs across the platter... Lanky Hank Krum rapped a round trip, very good on the mound... Nice control and a sizzling fastball... Win No. 2 for the power blasters who expect to clash with Fuller's or the Knit Mills Saturday eve at Barmann's... Newell sizzled around the hotner while Papa Carney flashed powerful throwing arm... Babe Coughlin's Knitting Mills had vastly improved unit... Kirby whiffed nine batsmen in his heat and Manager Frank Gore's lady should cause plenty of trouble in the league race... Jack Chappel, Berard's ace, will step around first for the knitters... "Watch the knitters," says Joe Kelly... "Frank 'Red' Kelly, right gardener, has state in the country.

Badly Cut in a Friendly Debate

John Ham, a boatman of Jersey City, was found on Canal street about 2 o'clock this morning in an intoxicated condition and with the left side of his face badly cut. He had bled profusely and his shirt was covered with blood. He was rushed to the Kingston Hospital where the wound was dressed. Later he was arraigned before Judge Cahill in police court on a charge of public intoxication.

"How were you injured?" asked Judge Cahill as he glanced at Ham's bandaged face.

"Just a friendly argument I had," said Ham. He said he was calling on a friend, another boatman, and in the argument the friend had hurled a glass which had struck him in the side of the head.

Judge Cahill suspended the payment of a $3 fine.

Roger Caldwell and Lennie Foster, two negroes, picked up at vagrants this morning, were given an opportunity of getting out of town.

Henry Mertine, 41, of Eddyville, who had never been arrested before in the city, was picked up on a charge of public intoxication. He was given an opportunity of returning to his home.

Augustus S. Brinler of 552 Delaware avenue, charged with passing a stop sign, had his hearing set down for Saturday.

Mohican Do-Nut Girl.
The Mohican Do-Nut Girl gaily attired attracted attention in the uptown business section Tuesday as she gave away samples of apple "do-nuts" which are being baked this week by the Mohican Market.

On John street as a special feature for Apple Blossom Festival week. Cooperating with the movement to use more apples, Elmer Trowbridge, manager of the local store, has secured the services of a Chicago baker to supervise the making of special apple do-nuts this week.

Most Brilliant Star

New York, May 4 (AP)—The most brilliant star in 49 years, formed by the planets Venus and Mars standing apparently side by side, will be visible in the western sky at 7 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, May 7. This will be the first time since 1898 that two major planets have come so close together. Astronomers say that without the aid of glasses the pair will appear to be one star.
